

Teacher Tapp Summer Competitions 2020

HOORAY it's officially summer! And it's time to introduce our Summer Competitions 2020. Over at Teacher Tapp towers, we're always thinking of ways to thank you for your dedication to the app and your hard work as teachers. Last summer we ran an August raffle during the summer holiday to win the 'Teacher Tapp CPD canon' for one lucky teacher's school. This year, we're going bigger and better. We're running the main raffle again (wool!) but we are also running a weekly prize draw too.

How do the Teacher Tapp Summer Competitions work?*

1. The Teacher Tapp CPD Canon Raffle

Just like the last two years, we're running our (now) annual raffle. You've told us that only 1 in 3 schools has a CPD library, which we think is crazy. So we want to change it. We value CPD because we recognise how crucial it is for teachers to continue to learn in order to improve their teaching. Our CPD canon (worth over £350 may we add) consists of books we think EVERY teacher should have access to, and we're going to send the whole lot of them to one lucky school! NOT JUST THAT: this year we will also add to the bundle, TWO VISUALISERS (one for you, one for a friend), AND the right to take over Teacher Tapp for the day! That's right - you will get to set the questions and the tip for a day. (Or nominate a friend who would love the chance to find something out!) How does it work? Every question you answer on Teacher Tapp in August works is a raffle ticket. If you answer every set of the daily three questions you will have 93 tickets in the final draw. So the more questions you answer the better chance you have of getting your hands on those books, visualisers and POWER! Get tapping!

2. ReTweet The Tweet!

We're running a competition to encourage you to share our get-the-app link. Why? Because we are on a mission to get more people on the app and learning new things every day. We are able to find out many more things when our numbers get higher. For example, does morale affect people leaving? How is the new Ofsted framework affecting book scrutiny? Why do English teachers like chisel tip markers?! How does it work? Re-tweet any of our Get The App competition tweets and follow @TeacherTapp on Twitter. That's it! What will you win in the summer competitions? For each tweet, we will run a random draw from all the users who retweeted us. The winner will receive a prize bundle of over £100 - including a £50 John Catt Voucher, a Hue HD Visualiser, plus Teacher Tapp mug, clock and assorted goodies. (Because we know from asking that these are the items you most want!) Aaand... that's it!

- Help us spread the Teacher Tapp fun so that more people can learn from the app!)

- Free prizes! Fun questions! And you learn stuff along the way!
